

Total track count of rock artists

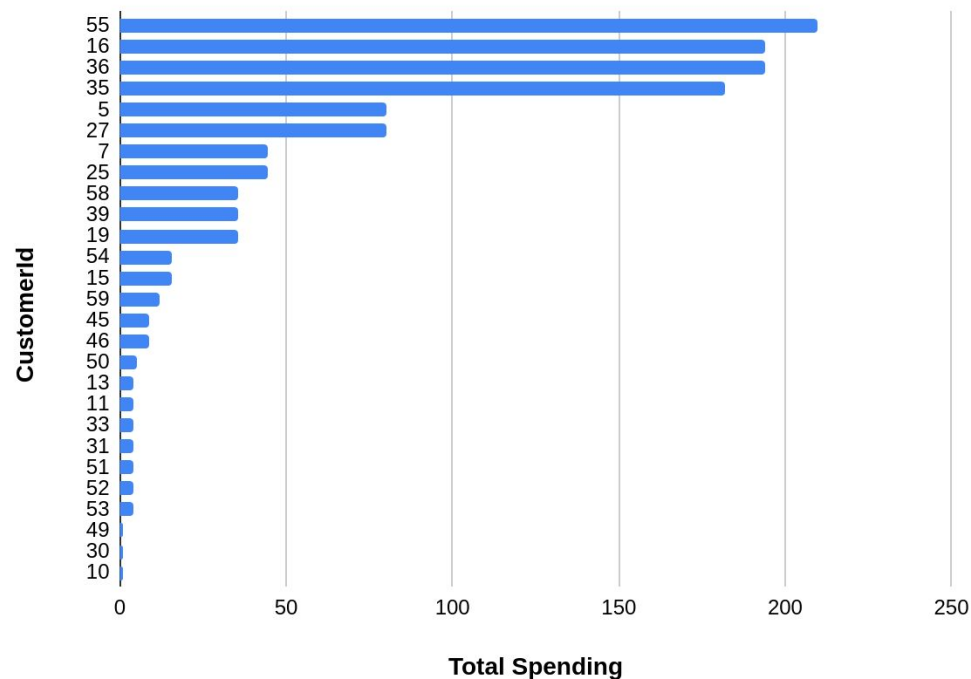

Top 10 rock artists

The bar chart shows top 10 rock artists with highest total track count. The top two artists are “Led Zeppelin” and “U2” with 114 and 112 tracks, respectively. The artist with lowest number of tracks is “Kiss” at 35 songs in total.

Customer spending on the artist who earned the most.

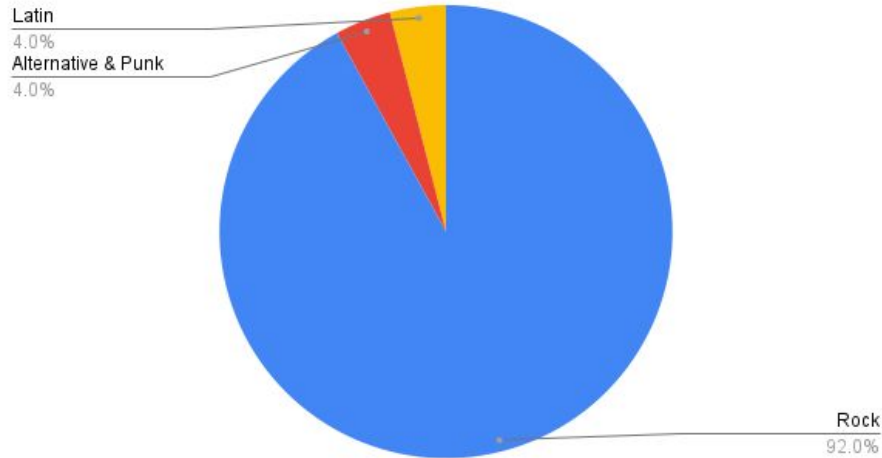

Customer spending on the artist who earned the most.

The bar chart compare total spending from different customers for the artist who has earned the most. The top four customers who spent the most are ones with Id 55, 16, 36, 35, at $209.88, $194.04, $194.04 and $182.16, respectively. Spending by other people are much less than those top four customers, and three lowest spending people are 49, 30, 10, whose values are all $0.99.

Most popular music genre in each country

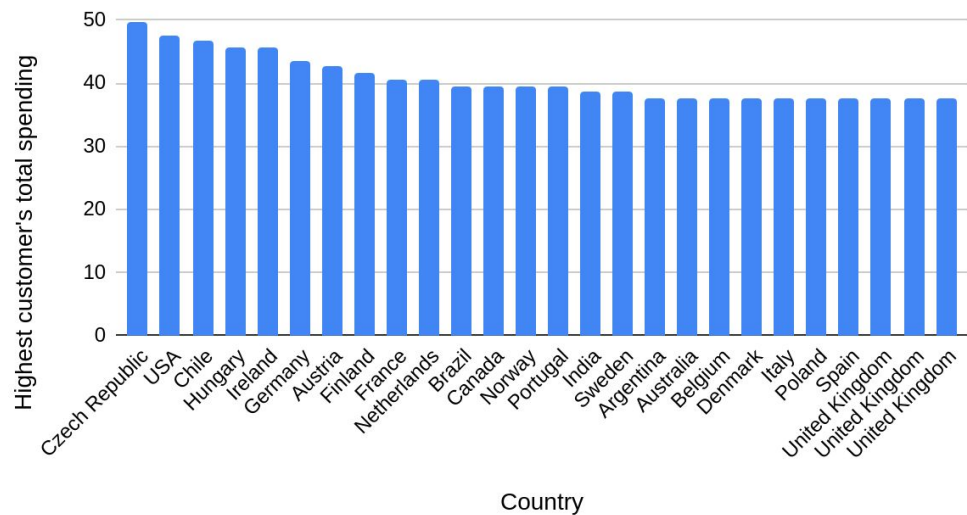

Most popular music genre in each country

The pie chart compares proportions of most popular music genre in different countries. There are 24 countries in total, but the pie chart is composed of 25 elements, as "Rock" and "Alternative & Punk" are equally well known in Argentina. The Rock music is the most popular genre in almost all countries, except Sweden where "Latin" is the most popular one.

Customers who spent the most for each country.

Most total spending of customer in each country

The bar chart compares spending from the customer who spent the most in each country. The UK appears three times due to the three equal values of customer spending. Czech Republic stands the first in highest customer's total spending at $49.62, and there are no major differences of figures among countries. The UK ranks the last at $37.62.